Don Murphy
Absolute Finance

Date: 14/11/2012

I recently asked Don Murphy of Absolute Finance to review all my personal and commercial insurances, including Critical Illness, Income Protection and Life Assurance. Don called out to my office and went through all our existing policies and was able to give us an honest and objective analysis of our existing set up.

Because Don is not a Tied agent for any particular insurance provider, he was able to get us the best deal currently available and with his expert knowledge in the area I really felt my financial affairs were in very safe hands. With surprising ease Don took care of all the necessary paperwork and I found the whole process was a lot easier than I expected. With our new insurance policies now in place I can see we've made a good saving in our insurance premiums and In some cases I now also have better cover for less cost.

I found Don to be very professional and trustworthy and I have no hesitation in recommending him to my own family and friends who could all benefit from his expertise in the whole area of financial advice, life assurance & retirement plans.
